EXHIBITIONS - A FAIR DEAL

Since inception 25 years ago, engagement with the public has been a cornerstone of our philosophy. Over and above our daily presence on social media, SANHA readily utilizes the many diverse platforms of community radio stations, exhibitions, conferences, seminars, food and community fairs, talks in Masaajid, school programs etc. to engage and interact with participants in the furtherance of its mission to educate and create awareness of Halaal.

After an absence of two or more years from the public arena due to the COVID pandemic, we are back. Truth be told, we missed the interaction and encouragement of your live queries, constructive criticism and suggestions.

To make up for the lost time since we have been apart, SANHA has signed up to meet and greet you at three community events in three provinces this month, Insha Allah.
